THE PRESIDENT GIVES REASON

WHY NEW COINS DO NOT BEAR THE OLD MOTTO OF "IN GOD WE TRUST."

Declares Use of Nation's Motto on Gold and Silver Coins Is Sacrilege.

Washington, Nov. 14.—In answer to one of the numerous protests which have been received at the White House against the new gold coins which have been coined without the words "In God We Trust," President Roosevelt has written a letter, which he today made public. The letter follows:

"When the question of the new coinage came up we looked into the law and found there is no warrant therein for putting 'In God We Trust' on the coins. As the custom, although without legal warrant, had grown up, however, I might have felt at liberty to keep the inscription had I approved of its being on the coinage. But as I did not approve of it, I did not direct that it should again be put on. Of course, the matter of the law is absolutely in the hands of Congress and any action in that direction will be immediately obeyed. At present there is no warrant in law for the inscription.

"My own feeling in the matter is due to my very firm conviction that to put such a motto on coins, or to use it in any kindred manner, not only does no good, but does positive harm, and is in effect irreverent, which comes dangerously close to sacrilege. A beautiful and solemn sentence such as the one in question should be treated and uttered only with that fine reverence which necessarily implies a certain exaltation of spirit.

"Any use which tends to cheapen it, and above all, any use which tends to secure its being treated in a spirit of levity, is from every standpoint profoundly to be regretted. It is a motto which is indeed well to have inscribed on our great national monuments, in our temples of justice, in our executive halls, and in buildings such as those at West Point and Annapolis, in short, wherever it will tend to arouse and inspire a lofty emotion in those who looked thereon. But it seems to me eminently unwise to cheapen a motto by use on coins such as it would be to cheapen it by use on postage stamps, or in advertisements. As regards its use on the coinage we have actual experience by which to go.

"In all my life I have never heard any human being speak reverently of this motto on the coins, but I have literally, hundreds of times, heard it used as an occasion of and incentive to the sneering ridicule which it is above all things undesirable that so beautiful and exalted a phrase should excite. For example, throughout the long contest extending over several decades on the free coinage question the existence of this motto on the coins was a constant source of

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton of Sulphur Springs, Tex., writes: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup, and they proved satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pain. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." Stevens Co.

jest and ridicule, and this was unavoidable.

"Everyone must remember the innumerable cartoons and articles based on phrases like 'In God we trust for the eight cents.' 'In God we trust for the short weight.' 'In God we trust for the thirty-seven cents we don't pay,' and so forth and so forth. Surely I am well within bounds when I say that a use of the phrase which invited constant levity of this phase is undesirable. If Congress alters the laws and directs me to replace on the coins the sentence in question, it will be immediately put into effect, but I trust that the sentiment of the country, the spirit of reverence in the country, will prevent such action being taken. (Signed) "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

$40,000 Fire in Santa Rosa.

Santa Rosa, Cal., Nov. 14.—A fire believed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed two of Santa Rosa's most prominent business houses yesterday. The structures were the property of Con Shea and were occupied by William H. Upton, dry goods, and Fred A. Cooper & Company, groceries. The loss on the stocks and building will reach about $40,000.

Big Attendance at Powers' Trial

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 14.—The third day of Caleb Powers' trial for complicity in the murder of Governor Goebel of Kentucky, opened with increased attendance. The first movement of the defense was the filing of three important depositions in support of the avowal bearing on the validity of Taylor's claims to the Governorship and making good his pardon issued to Powers.

Five men were seriously injured Monday when four tons of giant powder and dynamite loaded in a heavy wagon slid in the cut being made by the Western Pacific in the Feather river canyon. The driver escaped uninjured.

DIVING AUTO A SUCCESS

REVEILLER'S INVENTION DEMONSTRATES ADAPTABILITY ON LAND AND WATER.

New York, Nov. 14.—Waterland I, the amphibious automobile invented by Louis Reveillers of Paris, proved its ability here yesterday. It took its plunges in the Hudson at Fort Washington, in the presence of fifty or more automobile and motorboat experts. After half an hour spent in diving from the beach to the river and returning, and then cavorting about in the quiet waters of the Hudson, the car ran up the bank and across the New York Central Railroad tracks, climbed the steep hill to Riverside Drive, and rolled merrily down the drive amid the plaudits of those who watched it. The opinion of the experts who saw it was that the demonstration was a complete success, though in its present form its commercial value is not apparent.

The Waterland looks like a narrow yawl boat decked over fore and aft, leaving a cockpit for the navigator and a space behind him for two passengers. It is thirty feet long, six feet beam and about three feet six inches deep amidships, tapering to two feet at bow and stern. It draws about twenty-two inches of water. The motor can be transferred by a most ingenious contrivance instantly from the wheels to the propeller, or applied to both simultaneously.

The four wheels are of wood thinly plated with steel. They are chain-gear and have hard rubber tires. The four-bladed propeller is of brass. Its bearings are protected from dust by a metal hood, which is lifter as Investigating State Printer's Office.

Sacramento, Nov. 14.—Governor Gillett arrived home last night and this morning met with the Assembly committee appointed to investigate State Printer W. W. Shannon. At noon the inquirers adjourned to the call of the chair. It is the general impression that the committee anticipates the executive will call a special session. In the event that an extraordinary legislature is convened the investigators will be able to conclude their work without being forced to stay away from their duties at home especially for the inquiry. Members of the committee who were seen are of the opinion that an extra session will be called. It is believed Governor Gillett so informed them.

Police Arrest a Well Armed Italian.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Arrested at the Union passenger station as a confidence man yesterday, an Italian who said his name was Salvatore Messina, a merchant of San Francisco, was found to have about his person two stiletos, a magazine revolver and a pair of brass knuckles with steel spikes on each finger band. He said he was on his way to Philadelphia to visit his mother-in-law.

An unknown man, aged 22, of German type, in trying to board an east-bound freight train at Condo siding, four miles from Layton, fell under the wheels and his body was cut in two.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For years I had stomach trouble and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weakness. Great alternative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by Armstrong, druggist. 50c.

TRYING TO MAKE HIM ANSWER.

Harriman Says He Was Asked Irrelevant Questions.

New York, Nov. 14.—Arguments of the Interstate Commerce Commission to compel E. H. Harriman to answer certain questions put to him during the investigation of railroad affairs were begun before Judge Hough in the United States court today. The Government was represented by Frank B. Kellogg, who has conducted the commission's investigation into railroad affairs, while Judge R. S. Levett appeared for Mr. Harriman.

The questions that Harriman refused to answer related to the purchase of stock of other railroads in the interest of Union Pacific and to the Union Pacific dividend.

In a brief yesterday Harriman takes the ground that the commis-ion in asking the questions sought to go beyond the powers conferred upon it by Congress, and that to force him to reply to the questions under the circumstances would be to deprive him of liberty without due process of law.

Judge Hough said he would allow each side three and a half hours to present their case. United States District Attorney Stimson opened for the Interstate Commerce Commission. He said that the commission before starting the investigation during which Harriman asked the question which he has declined to answer, had stated the object of the investigation. This object, Stimson said, was to inquire into various combinations and consolidations of alleged violations of the law by certain railroads engaged in interstate commerce.

California also is having legal holidays, says the Topeka Journal, but nobody out there knows what to do with them.

In congratulating Mayor-elect Taylor President Jordan of Stanford said: "This means a new era for California." Let us sincerely hope so.

Whether man descended from monkeys or from the gods is not nearly so important as the question of his present conduct and the promptness with which he pays his bills.

A California legislature knows about as much about finance as it does about economy, in the opinion of the Oakland Enquirer. Any unnecessary legislative tinkering with the financial situation is not likely to mend matters.

What a pity it is that there are so many old gossips in this town who delight in ruining the character of innocent maidens. They should remember that they themselves have daughters, and they should also bear in mind the words of the good Christ, who said: "Let he who is without sin cast the first stone."

The state experimental farm at Davisville is now ready for business, and it is to be hoped that besides demonstrations in methods of production this farm may serve a useful purpose in the economics of production by showing the people of the state of California what it costs to produce given commodities under normal conditions and to deliver them to the customer.

Rev. William Rader: "Live for somebody, you big, able-bodied man, you bright, idle, useless, handsome woman. Change your attitude to life and substitute persons for things—and dogs. A world of things is a most stupid world. It is a kingdom of ciphers. To invest one's life in another life is to reap a good harvest. No life can amount to much that is purely impersonal."

An army of department clerks at Washington is at work on divorce data and is confronted with the segregation of an aggregate of 1,300,000 cases in the last twenty years. It is estimated that more than two-thirds of persons seeking divorce have been successful in their suits. This would seem to indicate that limited term marriages in this country are a condition and not a theory.

Admiral Evans declines to be brought into the controversy over the comparative merits of army and navy gunnery. He says there is no practical way of comparing the two classes of marksmanship unless some army officer shall hitch a mule team to one of the twelve-inch sea coast guns and shoot it off while galloping across the country at ten knots an hour. This may sound like a joke, but it is really about the nearest approach the army could make to naval gunnery conditions.

While doing some shopping in a downtown grocery store last Saturday evening we changed to hear a little boy ask his father who that hungry-looking man was buying beans. "That is our editor," said the father. "What do editors live on?" asked the inquisitive little urchin. "Why do you ask that question?" asked the indulgent father. "Because I heard you say you had taken our home paper for three years and had never paid a cent on it," replied the boy. To save the father from further embarrassment we left the store, but it is safe to predict that the child got a spanking when the father took him home.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE PANIC

Good for T. R.! His procedure during the market excitement has been an honor to his sincerity and his nerve. A steady and long-planned effort has been made to attribute to his policies the present demoralization; which is as if a patient should attribute to a doctor's diagnosis what ought to be attributed to his own recklessness in living. With metropolitan methods finding the light, with frenzied banking receiving its perfectly deserved reward, behold the men whose gamblers' disregard of law and caution has caused the trouble shouting lustily: "The president is to blame!" Happily the Wall street cry will not prevail. New York and Newport, and fragments of other gilded centres, will warm in sympathy, but among the people, west and south, and even east, responsibility for the present penalties will be placed, not upon the president, but upon the gentlemen who have the almost diverting assurance to exclaim: "See that man? He made this panic, because he helped to show us up. Let us have an end to this. Give us a man like Cannon or Fairbanks for president—a safe man. Don't let Roosevelt dictate."—Collier's Weekly.

HENEY AND THE GRAFT PROSECUTION

The fact that Francis J. Heney is taking no pay for his invaluable service in the graft prosecutions at San Francisco has long been known, but was not publicly mentioned by him until a day or two ago when a remark from the opposing counsel drew it out. And when a sneer followed, Heney said he did it "out of love of justice and good government and decency."

What a splendid example to lawyers everywhere! Heney is not rich, and the time he has devoted to the punishment of the corruptionists in San Francisco has involved for him a serious loss of income.

The city and the whole nation owe much to Francis J. Heney, not only for the grand work he has accomplished in San Francisco, but also for the inspiring example of patriotic citizenship he has set before the world.—Sacramento Bee.

The last ten years has been the golden age of American agriculture. More advance has been made than in any twenty or thirty years in the nation's history. Land has increased enormously in value since 1886, and is destined to go higher in the best farming sections. Prices for products have been good for some time, and are better now than ever. If the importance of agriculture and the farmer increases at the same rate in the future, and it is sure to do so, the agricultural life will be considered the ideal one, and to own a good farm the very acme of felicity.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY SEAT

INTERESTING ITEMS AS TAKEN FROM THE NAPA DAILY PAPERS.

From the Register:
The Napa Canning company in East Napa has closed down for the season. A supply of tomatoes contracted for are being shipped to San Francisco. The season's pack amounted to 83,000 cases.
J. E. Jacobson, who was so fearfully injured at Wicks flat near the Napa state hospital Friday forenoon by a falling tree, died Saturday morning. Everything that the surgeon's skill and the nurse's care could do for the unfortunate man had proved unavailing.
The managers of the Napa state hospital met in regular monthly session Friday. They visited the big dam which is being built at Wicks flat by way of establishing a reservoir that will settle for years to come the water supply for the hospital. With a continuance of this fine weather it is believed that thirty days more will see the work finished.
G. T. Forsyth, general passenger and traffic agent of the Southern Pacific, and C. S. Fee, district passenger agent, were in Napa Friday, coming from San Francisco in a touring car. The two railroad officials interviewed committees from the Napa chamber of commerce, the St. Helena board of trade and the Calistoga chamber of commerce in regard to securing better train service between points in this valley and San Francisco. The gentlemen favored the proposition laid before them by the committees from the three towns and will act upon the matter at a later date.

From the Journal:
J. H. Jordan, whose leg was so terribly crushed on Wednesday while sawing wood at his home on Cedar avenue, succumbed to his awful injuries shortly before midnight Thursday. The deceased was a native of Portland, Me., and aged 62 years. Mr. Jordan and his family came to Napa from Arizona.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

THE NEWSPAPERS OF THE NATION MISCONTRIVE PRESIDENT'S IDEAS.

Various Opinions on the Financial Situation and the Responsibility of the Chief Executive.

Special to The Calistogian.
Washington, Nov. 11.—The president is spending a large part of his time these days in explaining to financiers, capitalists and business men that he is not the terrible bogey that he has been painted by the "conservative" press, for, curiously enough, it is not the so-called "yellow journals" which have spread false reports concerning Mr. Roosevelt and his policies, but the ultra-conservative newspapers which represent, are read by and sometimes supported by the wealthy men of New York and other large financial centers. Beginning with hating the president, these papers have gone so far in the splanetic opposition they feel towards the president that they have represented him as the enemy of capital, the destroyer of prosperity and the incubator of class hatred. His speeches they have printed correctly, it is true, but the headlines which they have put on them and the editorials they have written about them, have so misled their readers that they have done more than any other element to precipitate the recent panic and the present financial straggle.

Mr. Roosevelt was recently besought by one timorous financier to say something in his message to the effect that every combination in restraint of trade was not prejudicial to the public welfare and that some combinations could not be avoided. This man was completely amazed when Mr. Roosevelt read to him the forcible passage in his last message, dealing with this subject, and calling attention to the absolute impossibility of avoiding all such combinations. The president said at that time it was one of the worst features of the anti-trust law that it could not be literally obeyed, for the impossibility of its observance worked a hardship to the just man who was compelled to violate the law and place a premium on the illegal acts of the lawless capitalist. He will reiterate these views again and believes that now congress will take the necessary steps to amend the law. This can be done by the insertion of the word "unreasonable" so that hereafter the law shall merely forbid combinations in unreasonable restraint of trade.

Some idea of the difficulties of the office of president might be gained from a glimpse of the mail which each day reaches the chief executive. Recently most of the letters have had much to do with the financial situation. One prominent banker writes, for instance, that Mr. Roosevelt must compel congress to enact a credit currency law and that now "no reasonable man can possibly object to such a plan." The same mail brings a letter from an equally prominent banker in another big city who begs that the president will not be prevailed upon as a result of the present straggle to adopt the "chimerical and revolutionary scheme of credit currency which will bring ruin and destruction on the country as surely as the day follows night." So, too, with the financiers who come to Washington. The president is perpetually saying, "Gentlemen, all this is very interesting, but what is it you want me to do?" Most of them are utterly incapable of telling, and when some of them try it they find they are diametrically opposed, and it usually ends in Mr. Roosevelt's suggesting that they go away and talk it over, and when they come to an agreement, let him know their plan. Generally speaking, they come to an agreement, and the little scheme which Mr. Roosevelt has worked on so many of the financial princes of the country seldom fails.

Attorney Henning has called the attention of the town trustees to the sign on the Main street bridge, which reads, "This bridge not safe for heavy loads." He holds that the posting of such a notice would not release the town from liability in case of an accident, and that in maintaining the sign the town board is simply "inviting a lawsuit." He thought that if the bridge needed repairs in order to make it safe such repairs should be made.

Be very careful about her churn. She needs it thoroughly for using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?
The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.
If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after or regular bowels, and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms are Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a leading medical journal, and all the several schools of medical practice have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

Strickland of Chattanooga, Tenn. Sold by Armstrong.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

WHAT HAS TRANSPIRED DURING THE WEEK FROM ALL AVAILABLE SOURCES.

Fifty Abbreviated Paragraphs That Have Come to the Casual Eye of the Editor.

Rumor has it that Charley C. is a good chauffeur. If you doubt it, just ask Dave W.

A forest fire was burning on Mount St. Helena last Friday and Saturday. No damage of any consequence has resulted from the blaze.

The board of town trustees did not meet on Tuesday of this week, but have continued their meetings until the governor's legal holidays cease.

Up to the first of the month 108,500 hunting licenses have been issued in the state. In Napa county alone 1265 tags of the $1 denomination were taken out and two at $25 each.

J. A. Sampson, a well-known and highly respected resident of the county seat, died Tuesday of typhoid fever. He was aged 41 years and was a native of this state. He was a brother of C. B. Sampson, the well-known traveling man, who visits Calistoga.

E. H. Curry, proprietor of the Geysers springs, is having one of the late Clarke Ford stage coaches overhauled at W. H. Brown's blacksmith shop, and will use it next summer to carry passengers from Cloverdale to the Geysers. The wagon was originally Mr. Foss' favorite coach.

The town of Santa Barbara is to have a new training school building to cost $11,925, and one of the successful bidders for the contract is Alfred Jensen, formerly of Calistoga, and of the firm of Jensen & Springer. His many friends here will be glad to learn of his good fortune.

A Navone has commenced the erection of his new saloon building across from the depot and on the old Tritsch site. The building will be a frame structure, one story and 47x30 feet in dimensions. M. Moran has the contract and the building will be pushed to speedy completion.

The store of Henry Hortop at Rutherford was burglarized last Friday night and considerable plunder, including many valuable watches, was taken. Sheriff Dunlap was notified the next morning and went to the scene at once, but the midnight marauders had covered up every possible clue that would lead to their capture.

On Tuesday afternoon while William Spies was speeding Sabie around the race track on the springs ground, the horse stepped into a hole and fell down. The animal broke the shafts out of the vehicle and becoming frightened broke away and ran to town. Mr. Spies was thrown out of the wagon, but aside from being covered with mud, escaped injury.

The people of this community owe a debt of gratitude to J. P. Robinson, the youthful but energetic station agent of the Southern Pacific depot. On a recent suggestion of the Calistogian he took the matter up of lighting the depot by electricity with the railroad officials, and in a week's time a man was sent here to wire the property and the lights were turned on for the first time Wednesday night. Good for you, Mr. Robinson.

The board of supervisors assembled at Napa Monday for the purpose of acting upon their regular monthly business, but as District Attorney Silva advised them that the passing upon claims against the county would be illegal during Governor Gillett's legal holidays, the board adjourned until the first judicial day. But over in Sonoma county the board met this week and attended to the regular routine of business.

Last Saturday a marriage license was issued to Mat Yudinich, age 36, a native of Austria, and Miss Katie Platt, age 29, a native of the same country. Both are residents of Calistoga. A license to wed was also granted H. P. Nelson, age 26, a native of California, and Miss Augusta Oweo, age 23, a native of Minnesota. Both residents of Napa, and G. A. McDonald, age 31, a native of California, and Annie Wilson, age 38, a native of California, and both residents of Napa.

The annual meeting of Calistoga chapter, No. 189, O. E. S., was held last Saturday evening and there was a large number of members present. Worthy Associate Matron Hattie Ashton presided in the absence of Worthy Matron Martha Thairfall. The newly-elected officers chosen are as follows: Hattie Ashton, worthy matron; E. E. Light, worthy patron; Adele Light, associate patron; Cora Hall, conductress; Sara McArthur, associate conductress; Lois Colburn, treasurer; Ruth Porter, secretary. Refreshments followed the election ceremony and a most enjoyable time was had by the members. The installation will take place on the evening of November 30th.

The Calistoga baseball team added another game last Sunday to their long list of victories by defeating the Santa Rosa Nationals by a score of 5 to 4. The contest was interesting throughout, and the local boys had to do some good playing to defeat the visitors. The score up to the half of the ninth inning was 4-4 and looked as though an extra round would be required to decide the game, but with good judgment and clever base running the Calistoga team sent the winning run across the plate. Luther Light and C. Rockstroh formed the battery for the locals, and C. F. Clark acted as umpire. Arrangements have been made for a return game next Sunday at the local diamond, and as each team has won a game, this deciding one will no doubt be the best contest seen here this season.

D. S. Howard, who owns the Two-mile house property, is very low and not expected to live.

There has been a lot more gravel put on the streets again this week under the direction of the marshal.

The president and the governor have issued their proclamations setting apart Thursday, the 28th inst., as Thanksgiving day.

Don't forget the special excursion to Berkeley next Sunday to the boulevard gardens tract. If you are interested go down and see the property.

The morning subject at the Methodist church next Sunday will be "Aggressive Evangelism;" evening, "How May I Know Whether I Am a Christian or Not?"

Rev. N. M. Fiske of San Anselmo will again occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here next Sunday. It is expected that the new pastor will soon be on the field.

At the annual banquet of the Napa chamber of commerce to be held on November 22nd, Governor James N. Gillett will be the guest of honor, and other prominent men will be present.

The Misses Borchelt brought as fine a lot of ripe Logan berries to the Calistogan office on Wednesday as were grown at any time last summer. They picked them from their place in the hills west of town, and they are certainly beauties. Ripe berries of any kind are somewhat unusual in November.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are losing no time these days in getting ready for their bazaar to be given on December 7th. There will be booths for fancy work, candy, ice cream, aprons, comforters, food, plants and the little girls' booth. All will be made as attractive as preceding years, and this bazaar promises to equal if not eclipse any of those gone before. Come out and judge for yourself.

The supervisors of Sonoma county on Monday granted a franchise to the Snow Mountain Water and Power company for the stringing of wires and carrying electricity practically all over the county. The company was given a franchise for a trunk power line through the county from north to south, with a branch running across to Napa county, some time last year, and the work is well under way. The new franchise is for a system of feeders.

C. B. Tarrill, the expert photographer of San Francisco, has been spending the week in this locality taking views for the N. H. of Bay Counties association's promotion work. He has hitherto taken over 500 negatives of the beautiful scenes and attractions of this county for use in promotion work, and is an artist at his business. In company with L. J. Bulen, secretary of the local chamber of commerce, they visited Lake county last week and secured many valuable views. They report progress all along the line up there.

Lois Lone, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Davis of Haywards, formerly of Calistoga, died Tuesday of scarlet fever and diphtheria. She was only sick two weeks, but suffered great agony. She was aged 3 years and 3 days, and interment was made at Lorenzo. Mrs. Davis, the mother of the child, is very sick with the same dreaded diseases, but at this writing is improving slowly. This is very sad news to Mr. and Mrs. Davis' many friends here and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to them in their sad bereavement.

Kelley-Green Nuptials.
A very quiet wedding was solemnized on Monday at noon when Miss Lillius Green became the bride of Philip E. Kelley of Calistoga. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Green, at Baywood, Sacramento county, in the presence of immediate relatives only. Rev. W. E. Story of Sacramento officiated.

The bride is well known to a large portion of the people of this section, having made frequent visits here to relatives, and is a young lady of high attainments and extremely popular among those who know her. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Kelley of this place, and is an honest and industrious young man. He is a member of the firm of Kelley Bros., the local liverymen. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley have a host of friends here who wish them a long and happy married life together. They arrived home on Tuesday evening's local and will take up their residence in this place.

Chamber of Commerce.
There will be a meeting of the Calistoga chamber of commerce at the auditorium next Monday evening. This will be the annual meeting of the chamber and it is earnestly requested that all members be present. Officers will be elected for the coming year and a full statement rendered of the past year's work.

Francis Hope, special representative of the North of Bay Counties association, will be present and deliver a lecture on the work accomplished by that organization, also a lantern slide lecture of Napa, Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino counties. This is the same lecture delivered by Mr. Hope at the ferry building in San Francisco each day to prospective settlers. Every member of the local chamber should hear Mr. Hope, as it will give them an idea of the grand work that is being accomplished.

FARMERS HOLD THEIR INSTITUTE

MOST SUCCESSFUL MEETING OF TILLERS OF THE SOIL HELD AT NAPA.

Prominent Speakers Were Present and Much Interest Was Taken in the Session.

The annual meeting of the Napa County Farmers' Institute was held in Napa on Thursday and Friday of last week, and there was a large attendance of farmers and visitors. Chairman D. J. Brown of Browns valley presided. There was a splendid musical and literary program, and very interesting papers were also read on agriculture, viticulture, horticulture and dairying.

Professor W. T. Clarke of the agricultural department of the state university delivered an address on "Alfalfa Planting and Care." He spoke of the land that must be chosen to plant alfalfa. The land must be moist and must be plowed quite often and deeply. He recommended a fall planting with Utah seed, which is the cleanest than other varieties. Alfalfa should be cut at the time when the blossoms first appear and stacked with straw, the proportion being two to one. The mixing of straw makes a very palatable food for stock and is also profitable.

Professor C. Westergaard of the state university then spoke on "The $40 vs. the $100 Cow." He very interestingly regarded the comparison of the scrub cow and the well-bred cow. For agricultural and climatic conditions in Napa, the Jersey and Holstein breed were suggested by him as being the most suitable in the Napa valley.

State Forester G. B. Lull told of the great needs of preserving the forest areas of the country. He said steps had been taken to guard the forests so as to protect them against fires. Mention was also made of the forestry departments that have been established in the colleges throughout the United States so as to enable students to study forestry from a scientific standpoint. Great stress was laid on the planting of eucalyptus trees, they being used today in preference to other harder woods.

A. D. Butler of the horticultural commission gave a short verbal report regarding the peach blight and cautioned farmers to spray their trees now to protect against the blight. Mr. Butler also advised farmers not to plant trees too close together, as each tree cannot receive its necessary amount of nourishment.

"Weeds, and How to Destroy Them," was discussed by Professor C. Westergaard. Methods of destroying weeds, which are common in Napa valley, were presented. The Morning Glory, the farmers' greatest enemy, was discussed at great length. Numerous methods for destroying the dreaded weed were presented, the following being the most effective: "To smother the weed by covering the affected spot with manure." This method has been used by farmers in the valley and found to have done the required work. Another method was that of covering the ground where the weed is with tar paper. For other perennials Professor Westergaard recommended cutting the weeds' foliage, thus preventing the roots from getting their necessary food, which would eventually kill the roots. Mustard can be killed by spraying with bluestone.

"Cereal Improvement," by Professor G. W. Shaw, was one of the most important subjects dealt upon. He explained how cereal development was not advancing in this state as it should, the deterioration being due to farmers, who have planted inferior grades of grain, which have exhausted the rich soils and at the same time yielded poor crops. He then mentioned how other grain-producing states have increased their value millions of dollars by planting superior grain.

The prizes for the best corn, in which forty contestants participated, were awarded by J. E. Beard, the first prize being a tie being No. 25, W. K. Garwood of Calistoga, and No. 28, F. O. Godwin of Capelle. C. H. Kestor's box, No. 40, was awarded second prize. The prizes were given by Thompson, Beard & Sons, the first prize consisting of $100 and the second $25.

The many handsome specimens of fruits and vegetables that were on exhibition at the institute are worthy of mention. The samples of corn which were entered in the contest presented a most creditable display. Pumpkins, tomatoes, potatoes, apples, and in fact every fruit and vegetable which is mature at this time of the year was to be seen. Hundreds of photos loaned by the Napa chamber of commerce were placed about the hall, showing the many homes, the valley's attractions, its wonders and its advantages. The samples of vegetables and fruits on exhibition were all grown under ordinary conditions and on Napa soil by Napa farmers.

The institute as a whole was considered the most successful that has been held in this county for many years.

FRUIT GROWERS WILL CONVENE

CALIFORNIA FRUIT MEN TO MEET IN CONVENTION AT MARYSVILLE.

A Very Interesting and Instructive Session is in Store for Those Who Attend.

The Thirty-third Fruit Growers' convention will be held at Marysville, under the auspices of the state commission of horticulture, commencing Tuesday, December 3rd, at 9:30 a. m., and continuing until Friday, December 6th.

The object of these conventions is to bring together the various branches of the state's greatest industry, to get them into closer relations, to exchange views and experiences upon all matters bearing upon good fruit growing, and upon all horticultural matters, to secure better results for the growers' labors and better markets for their products.

To these ends papers will be presented and addresses made upon all subjects bearing on the fruit industry. These will be open for discussion, and all questions germane to the subject will be answered.

These conventions have steadily increased in interest from their commencement thirty years ago; have been largely the cause of the great growth of the fruit industry, and have been of incalculable value to the growers of the state, and it is determined to make this, the thirty-third, the best and most comprehensive that has ever been held.

Very many questions of vital importance to all who are concerned in the fruit industry, in any of its branches, will come before the convention for discussion and consideration, and it is directly to the interest of all to be present.

Most of these questions are upon the many serious problems which now confront the fruit growing industry, and which alone can be solved by the combined wisdom and energy of the fruit growers and by their co-operative action.

A cordial invitation is extended to all fruit growers, shippers, wine makers, raisin growers, packers, nurserymen, university people and horticultural officials of the state, and all others interested in this, the principal productive industry of California, to be present and to take part in the proceedings of the convention.

Arrangements have been made with the Southern Pacific, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, and the Northern Electric railroads for special excursion rates over their respective roads, and people within reach of any of these lines can secure tickets direct to the convention at reduced rates.

Arrangements have been made for hotel accommodations, and a committee will meet all members of the convention and see that suitable accommodations are furnished each one.

Arrangements will also be made for entertainments and excursions, and every effort will be put forth to make this convention the best ever held, and the whole affair a most enjoyable one to all who attend.

GIVES HIS LIFE AND SAVES TOWN

HITCHES TO BLAZING CARS OF DYNAMITE AND DRAWS THEM BEYOND DANGER POINT.

Man Is Blown to Fragments and Citizens Will Erect Monument In Honor of His Heroism.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 9.—Through the heroism of Engineer Jesus Garcia, the Mexican town of Nacozari, in the State of Sonora, and its population of several thousand people, were saved from destruction yesterday afternoon. Garcia gave up his life in his effort, however, and his body was blown to atoms.

Two car loads of dynamite on the narrow gauge to the Pilares mines took fire in some mysterious manner and the town, swelter and population were threatened. Garcia backed his locomotive and coupled it to the burning cars while the population fled. Opening wide the throttle and tooting his whistle at every yard to warn others away, he started down the road and go half a mile from the station before the flames ate their way to the explosives and set off the two cars of combustibles.

With a roar that shook the town and a force that tore a hole in the earth twenty-five feet deep, the dynamite exploded. Not even a piece of the body of the Mexican has been found.

The people of the town will erect a monument on the site of the accident in his memory. Money already has been raised for that purpose. Garcia had just pulled the cars up beside a station house full of Mexicans when the explosion came and thirteen of these were killed. Several were also injured in the neighborhood by flying debris from the wrecked cars, locomotive and section house.

An American lad, John Chisholm, who was playing off at considerable distance, had his life crushed out by a railroad tie, hurled 200 feet through the air. His father was a conductor on the road on which Garcia was an engineer.

Examination of Baugh's books has as yet shown no shortage and no reason is known for the act.

BOOTH SAYS FAREWELL

FOUNDER OF SALVATION ARMY MAKES ADDRESS ON NEW YORK CITY HALL STEPS.

New York, Nov. 9.—At a monster open air demonstration General Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, who sailed today for Europe after what probably will be his last American "campaign," last night bade his soldiers in this country and the American people generally farewell.

General Booth made his final address from the steps of the City Hall to thousands of adherents and friends of the Salvation Army.

After the meeting General Booth dictated the following farewell words to the people of America:

"Farewell America. You have given me a generous welcome. On this visit I have seemed to have come nearer to the heart of the nation than on any other occasion. Faith would I have stayed longer with you. Indeed, I would have wished that some method might have been invented by which I could have been constituted one of your own sons and so take a practical step toward the realization of that fatherhood of the people which must of necessity be the first step to that brotherhood of nations on which so many hearts are set.

"But I understand this to be impossible without sacrificing my fatherland. My visit has been a busy, and I hope, successful one. I have noticed among other things to reveal to me the fact of the improved understanding as to the object and methods of the army, together with the existence of a higher appreciation of its value and influence.

BANK OFFICERS ARRESTED.

Depositor of Defunct Portland Trust Company Charges Felony.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 11.—J. Thorburn Ross, president; George H. Hill, vice president, and T. T. Berkhart, treasurer, of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, which went into the hands of a receiver Wednesday last, were arrested Saturday, and a warrant is out for John E. Aitchison, secretary, and Frank M. Warren, a director of the defunct institution. The charge lodged against them is accepting money on deposit while knowing the bank was insolvent.

Under the laws of Oregon this is a felony, punishable by a maximum fine of $1,000 or imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years, or both fine and imprisonment.

The arrests were made on complaint of C. F. Ehman, who alleges that on October 28, the day before the present day-to-day holiday period began, he deposited in the bank the sum of $550. Ehman alleges that the officials of the bank knew on that day and had for some time previous that the bank was insolvent.
